Boys and Girls in Service

Rose received basic training at Fort Dix, New Jersey.

He attended Hillsboro High School and was employed by Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. State Hospital before going on active duty.

Fort McClellan, Alabama (A HTNC)—Army Specialist Five David L. Nelson, son of Lester L. Nelson, of Durbin, completed a four week chemical, biological and radiological (CBR) course at The Chemical Center, Fort McClellan, Alabama, in late October.

During the course Specialist Nelson received instruction in CBR operations and defense in the duties of CHR Personnel.

Nelson entered the Army in June 1957.

Specialist Nelson and his wife, Georgia, live at 114 N. W. Second Avenue, Homestead, Florida.

The 26-year-old soldier is a 1957 graduate of Green Bank High School.

Augsburg, Germany (AHT-NC)—Army Specialist Four Phillip J. Hamrick, 19, son of Mrs. Vera V. Burgess, of Marlinton, and his unit, the 396th Transportation Company, provided support for a battalion of U. S. soldiers who traveled to Berlin across Russian occupied Germany late in October.

The 110-mile trip required three days to complete because of travel restrictions and security regulations in the area.

Specialist Hamrick is a squad leader in the company near Augsburg Germany.

He entered the Army in April 1961 and was stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky, before arriving overseas the following August.

Hamrick is a 1960 graduate of Marlinton High School.

Before entering the Army he was employed by the Central Glass Company, in Huntington.

Great Lakes, Illinois (FHT-NC)—Paul S. Workman, 18, son of Darley O. Workman, of Hillsboro, completed basic training September 13, at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois.

The nine-week training includes naval orientation, history and organization, seamanship, ordnance and gunnery, military drill, physical fitness, first aid and survival.

During the training recruits receive tests and interviews which determine their future assignments in the Navy. Upon completing the program they are assigned to service schools or ships or stations for on-the-job training in a Navy rating specialty.

Naval training produces the power in seapower by supplying qualified personnel to man the ships, aircrafts and shore stations of today's Navy.

Correction

Talented 4-H'ers Earn Honors For Best Projects

Two West Virginia teen-agers, who sewed and baked their way to state honors this year, will meet the first week of December at the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

Sally Howard, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Howard of Cowen, was winner of the 4-H bread program trip award provided by Standard Brands Incorporated.

Nancy Harper, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Harper of Marlinton, won the state dress-revue competition. She will be the guest in Chicago of Simplicity Pattern Co.

At the congress Miss Harper will model her award-winning costume, a flamingo pink wool flannel dress, black wool broadcloth coat and hat.

Miss Harper has won six state fair blue ribbons in clothing and five in food projects. She has served as clothing counselor for the Marlinton Livestock 4-H Club for several years.

A whiz at demonstrations, Miss Howard says, "These demonstrations will be of great help to me in my career as a home economist."

She is a sophomore at West Virginia Wesleyan College. In 1959 her cottage cheese-roll demonstration won the state dairy foods award. Last year she turned her attention to public speaking and was acclaimed state winner.

More than 2,000 4-H Club members and delegates from 50 states and Puerto Rico plan to attend the congress Dec. 15.

P. T. A.

At a recent business meeting the Hillsboro P. T. A. made plans to sponsor a bake sale. Proceeds from the sale will be used to buy a new stove for the lunch room. The P. T. A. is asking that each parent lend support by baking or donating money to buy material for aprons and tea towels. Plans are to sell cakes, pies, cookies, cupcakes, candy, salt-rising bread and yeast bread.

The organization would greatly appreciate each parent contacting either Mrs. Marion Hill, Mrs. Alfred Callison, Mrs. Zell Lewis, or Mrs. William Davis with an offer of help and an idea as to when someone should call for your donation or baked goods.
